CONTENTS-INDEX: VOLUME 18

AUTHORS

Baker, Robert F.: see Edward S. Johnson

Beer, Stafford. The World we manage, 198–209.

Berry, Gene A.: see Dirk C. Prather.

Bonoma, Thomas V., & Tedeschi, James T. Some effects of source behavior on target's compliance to threats, 34–41.

Bowden, Edgar. Ordinal scaling of multicategory persisting and disappearing traits, 386–390.

Brown, John Seeley. Book Review: Terry Winograd, Understanding natural language, Academic Press, 1972, 448–449.

Coombs, Clyde H. A reparameterization of the prisoner's dilemma game, 424–428.

Deutsch, Karl W.: see Victor J. Marma.

England, J. Lynn. Mathematical models of two-party negotiations, 189–197.

Erickson, Gary M. Maslow's basic needs theory and decision theory, 210–211.

Findler, Nicholas V. Kinship structures revisited, 68–71.

Fishburn, Peter C. A proof of May's theorem $P(m, 4) = 2P(m, 3)$, 212.

Fishburn, Peter C. Voter concordance, simple majorities, and group decision methods, 364–376.

Friend, Kenneth E.: see Stephen M. Sales.

Gibbard, Graham S., & Hartman, John J. Relationship patterns in self-analytic groups: A clinical and empirical study, 335–353.

Glassman, Robert B. Persistence and loose coupling in living systems, 83–98.

Goehring, Dwight J.: see James P. Kahan.

Griesinger, Donald W., & Livingston, James W., Jr. Toward a model of interpersonal motivation in experimental games, 173–188.

Gruvaeus, Gunnar: see Howard Wainer.

Hamburger, Henry: see John Miller.

Hartman, John J.: see Graham S. Gibbard.

Hartwig, Frederick. Statistical significance of the lambda coefficients, 307–310.

Hornbeck, Frederick William. Factorial analyses of variance with appended control groups, 213–220.

Horvath, William J. Book Review: Roger Bastide, The sociology of mental disorder, David McKay, 1972, 129–130.

Horvath, William J. Book Review: Kenyon B. DeGreene, Societechnical systems, Prentice-Hall, 1973, 452–453.

Johnson, Edward S., & Baker, Robert F. The computer as experimenter: New results, 377–385.

Kahan, James P. Noninteraction in an anonymous three-person prisoner's dilemma game, 124–127.

Kahan, James P., & Goehring, Dwight J. Responsiveness in two-person zero-sum games, 27–33.

Kahan, James P.: see Amnon Rapoport.

Kassouf, Sheen T. Book Review: Jarrod W. Wilcox, A method for measuring decision assumptions, MIT Press, 1972, 453–454.

Klingsporn, M. J. The significance of variability, 441–447.

Krane, William R.: see Martin E. Morf.

Laszlo, Ervin. A systems philosophy of human values, 250–259.

Leinhardt, Samuel. The development of transitive structure in children's interpersonal relations, 260–271.

Livingston, James W., Jr.: see Donald W. Griesinger.

Marma, Victor J., & Deutsch, Karl W. Survival in unfair conflict: Odds, resources, and random walk models, 313–334.

Mayer, Thomas F. Book Review: Kenneth E. Boulding, A primer on social dynamics: History as dialectics and development, Free Press, 1970, 288–293.

Meltz, David B. An index for the measurement of interparty competition, 60–63.

Miller, James G. Donald G. Marquis, 235–241.

Miller, James G. Fowler McCormick, 160–162.

Miller, John, & Hamburger, Henry. Book Review: Richard G. Niemi & Herbert F. Weisberg, Probability models of collective decision making, Merrill, 1972, 449–452.

Morf, Martin E., & Krane, William R. A strategy for developing automated assessment systems, 294–306.

Niemi, Richard G.: see Herbert F. Weisberg.

Nieminen, Juhani. On status in an organization, 417–419.

Nowakowska, Maria. A formal theory of actions, 393–416.

Nowakowska, Maria. Perception of questions and variability of answers, 99–108.

Owen, Guillermo. Book Review: Nigel Howard, Paradoxes of rationality: Theory of metagames and political behavior, MIT Press, 1971, 128–129.

Paitich, Daniel. A comprehensive automated psychological examination and report (CAPER), 131–136.

Pattanaik, Prasanta K. Group choice with lexicographic individual orderings, 118–123.

Prather, Dirk C., & Berry, Gene A. Differential reinforcement of the human pupillary response, 420–423.

Rapoport, Amnon, Kahan, James P., & Stein, William E. Decisions of timing in conflict situations of incomplete information, 272–287.

Riegel, Klaus F. The recall of historical events, 354–363.

Roby, Thornton B., & Rubin, Jeffrey Z. An exploratory study of competitive temporal judgment, 42–51.

Rubin, Jeffrey Z.: see Thornton B. Roby.
Sales, Stephen M., & Friend, Kenneth E. Success and failure as determinants of level of authoritarianism, 163–172.
Schlenger, William E. A systems approach to drug user services, 137–147.
Shiflett, Samuel C. The contingency model of leadership effectiveness: Some implications of its statistical and methodological properties, 429–440.
Smith, Carol A. Book Review: David C. McClelland & David G. Winter, Motivating economic achievement, Free Press, 1969, 64–67.
Stein, William E.: see Amnon Rapoport.
Tedeschi, James T.: see Thomas V. Bonoma.
Truzzi, Marcello. An empirical examination of attitude consistency in complex cognitive structures, 52–59.
Vickers, Geoffrey. Motivation theory—A cybernetic contribution, 242–249.
Wainer, Howard, Gruvaeus, Gunnar, & Zill, Nicholas, II. Senatorial decision making: I. The determination of structure 7–19.
Wainer, Howard, Zill, Nicholas, II, & Gruvaeus, Gunnar. Senatorial decision making: II. Prediction, 20–26.
Weisberg, Herbert F., & Niemi, Richard G. A pairwise probability approach to the likelihood of the paradox of voting, 109–117.
Zill, Nicholas, II: see Howard Wainer.

TITLES

About the Authors: 80–82, 156–157, 232–233, 311–312, 391–392, 455.
Book Reviews: 64–67, 128–130, 288–292, 448–454.
Comprehensive automated psychological examination and report (CAPER), A. By Daniel Paitich, 131–136.
Computer as experimenter: New results, The. By Edward S. Johnson & Robert F. Baker, 377–385.
Computer Program Abstracts: 72–79, 148–155, 221–231.
